120 registered buyers from 12 states snapped up the offering of Brangus and Ultrablack bull from Cavender Ranches at their Neches River sale facility in Jacksonville, Texas. Guests and customers were greeted with a steak dinner the evening before and a stellar offering of high-quality bulls.

The days high seller was Lot 104, CB Big Town 60L3 at $30,000 for one half semen interest and full possession. This big ribbed, long sided calving ease prospect went to Peanut Carr, Columbia, LA. His dam is the $40,000 donor sold last fall, 60G43.

Peanut Carr also paid $20,000 for full possession and one-half semen interest in the days second high selling bull, Lot 2, CB No Doubt 817K39. This deep bodied herd sire prospect is a maternal brother to the $70,000 New Standard.

Lot 12, ETX Blount 103K15, consigned by East Texas Cattle, Bullard, TX was the third high selling bull. This big growth, picture perfect prospect fetched $17,000 to Townsend Brangus, Milburn, OK.

Arturo Benevides, Laredo, TX paid $16,500 for Lot 14, CB Capital Gain 5V61K who was the day's fourth high selling bull. This elite growth prospect boasts calving ease and big REA.

Mid-South Cattle Co, Morganza, LA purchased the days next high seller when they gave $14,500 to own Lot 1, CB Modelo 1062K22. Full possession and one-half semen interest sold in this heavy boned, long bodied prospect.

The next high selling bull was Lot 112, CB Big Town 60L. Sweet Johns Cattle, Okeechobee, FL paid $12,500 to own this full brother to the days high selling Lot 104. Like his brother he boasts calving ease, growth and carcass in an impressive package.
